- "Permanent establishment" means a fixed place of business through which the business of an enterprise is wholly or partly carried on. Includes especially:
  - a. a place of management;
  - b. a branch;
  - c. an office;
  - d. a factory;
  - e. workshop, and
  - f. a mine, an oil or gas well, a quarry or any other place of extraction of natural resources.
- "Permanent establishment" likewise encompasses:
  - a building sit, or construction of installation project continue for a period more than six months; (the period may be varied between different Contracting States)
  - the furnishing of services, including consultancy services, by an enterprise of a Contracting State through employees or other personnel in the other Contracting State for a period or periods aggregating more than six months within twelve-month period. (the new treaties signed by Hong Kong and China with other Contracting States after 2008 has changed to "a period or periods exceeding in the aggregate 183 days within any twelve-month period".)
